BOSTON, July 5 /PRNewswire/ -- Boston-based AVID Staffing purchased a 4,000 square foot business condominium earlier this week on 185 Devonshire Street in downtown Boston, MA. The move secures a long-term presence in Boston and is the first of many upcoming expansion plans for the company.

The purchase represents months of negotiations capped off with the closing of the office condo earlier this week. Principal owner, Brian Tomasello, expects this to be the first of a number of upcoming big initiatives for the company: "This was a strategic move for us to secure a long-term space which will eventually lower our operating costs. Furthermore, it will serve as AVID's flagship office in the heart of Boston's financial district while we focus on moving into other markets across the country."
